What information do we collect about you and why?

When you access a service provided by Early Connections - Port Macquarie/ Hastings a client record is created. It includes your name, contact details and information about your child. Information from all the services that you access is stored in your client record and new information is added each time you visit.

The information you give us helps us provide you with the most appropriate intervention and support. We may also use the information to better manage and plan our services. In this situation, your personal details are removed so you cannot be identified.

Who else sees your information?

Your information can only be accessed by Early Connections staff involved in your intervention. Otherwise, we will only release information about you if you provide consent or if required by law, such as in an emergency situation to aid treatment.

What say do you have about what to your information?

You have the right to choose not to share some of your information or restrict access to your records, but it may affect our ability to provide you with the most appropriate intervention. Please talk to us if you wish to change or cancel your consent.

How will your information be protected?

We are committed to protecting your privacy. Your information is also protected by law.

We have strict confidentiality and privacy policies and ensure your information is stored securely.

Can you access your information?

You have the right to request access to your information and to ask for it to be corrected if necessary. Please contact our Director for more information.

What do I do if I have concerns about the way my information is being handled?

You may contact the Director by telephoning 02 6583 8238.

If you do not believe that your concerns have been dealt with adequately, you may contact the NSW Ombudsman (02) 9286 1000 or toll free 1800 451 524.
